Aboriginal Relations Minister Gene Zwozdesky and Municipal Affairs Minister Thomas Lukaszuk will be in Zaragoza, Spain from Sept. 6 to 16, to find out how to convince Expo execs to bring the world to Edmonton in 2017.

"We're going to learn everything we possibly can about staging an Expo and ... we're going to teach about Edmonton and Alberta and what a wonderful place it would be to hold an Expo," Lukaszuk said.

The 10-day trip will cost taxpayers nearly $40,000, an expense Lukaszuk says is justified.

Granny charged with whacking cop

ASSAULT An 80-something grandmother has been charged after she allegedly whacked a city cop with her cane this week.

Employees at the Aurora Motel on 151 Street and 111 Avenue were having problems Monday afternoon removing the 81-year-old and her three unregistered guests, including her granddaughter, who were allegedly causing trouble in one of its suites. Police asked the group to leave, but after the only male in the group left, a woman and her granddaughter became belligerent towards officers, said police spokeswoman Karen Carlson. One of the women fled from cops briefly as they were writing out trespassing tickets, but as soon as they attempted to bring the woman under control, the grandmother smacked one of the officers on the shoulder from behind with her cane, police said. Lillian Peacock is charged with assaulting a police officer.

18 months for kiddie porn bust

victoria.handysides@metronews.ca

A 59-year-old Edmonton man will be spending the next 18 months behind bars for his role in an international child pornography ring, a Provincial Court judge ruled yesterday.

Barry Geoffrey Dant sat sullen with his arms crossed as the court heard details about his involvement in purchasing "tailor made" child pornography from a supplier in Europe.

Court also heard that though Dant has denied any sexual contact with children, he shot of photo of a friend's young daughter standing up in the bathtub. In total, police seized over 400 videos and 1,200 images from Dant's computers. Investigators also seized a pair of children's panties from his home.

"He does not see this as victimizing children or harm to children," said

Crown prosecutor Diane Hollinshead. "It's clear from psychiatric assessment he thinks the children are consenting with this and it's OK."

Hollinshead described Dant's collection as "organized, methodical and varied," some of which included images of bondage situations, where a child was tied down and vulnerable.

His arrest and conviction is in part of a massive international child porn investigation, dubbed "Operation Koala."

So far 2,500 customers in 19 countries have been identified, and more than a million files and photos have been found. Over 20 children between the ages of nine and sixteen have been identified.

"We have to sort through graphic images, which are destroyed at the end of the day," said an Integrated Child Exploitation (ICE) Unit officer, who investigated the case. "I'm quite pleased with the outcome today."

"This is definitely a concern for a lot of parents that come through here," said Scott.

The baby boy reportedly walked though the backdoor of the house unnoticed near 39 Street and 35 Avenue around 6:30 p.m. Monday night before falling into a decorative pond.

Jill McCormick, a spokeswoman with Edmonton Emergency Medical Services,

Paramedics performed CPR as the baby was rushed to the Grey Nuns Hospital where he later died, said McCormick.

Man dies after collision with semi

FATALITY Morinville RCMP are dealing with a second death on area highways in just five days.

Over the Monday noon hour, a pickup truck traveling northbound on Highway 44 collided with a semi truck making a wide left-hand turn ahead on the roadway.

It appears that the Ford F-150 pickup truck hit the semi from behind, while the big rig was attempting to make a wide turn into the Morinville Hutterite Colony.

Both the 39-year-old man behind the wheel of the pickup and his 61-year-old female passenger were rushed to hospital by ambulance. The passenger died en route to the hospital.

Only last Thursday, a van collided head-on with a tractor-trailer unit on Secondary Highway 633.

"It is a lot in a short time," said Morinville RCMP Cst. Jaime Clayton.

At the time of Monday's crash, roads were dry and there were no conditions impeding visibility.

No charges have been laid in either incident.

Hands off our oil: Stelmach

jeff.cummings@metronews.ca

Leave the West's oil alone because it's an economic driver for Canada, warned the premiers for Saskatchewan and Alberta during a joint cabinet meeting in Lloydminster yesterday.

After already scolding party leaders Monday over election promises made to cap oilsands developments some claim is a threat to Canada's environment, Premier Ed Stelmach told reporters the air quality is still better than most cities across the country.

"Ninety-nine per cent of the time, the air is a better quality than in the very same city where the person who is complaining the most lives in," said Stelmach who was possibly making a swipe at NDP

Stelmach

Leader Jack Layton who lives in Toronto.

"So maybe start cleaning up the air in your city before you start pointing fingers to the West."

Saskatchewan Premier Brad Wall said both provinces have also spent the most per capita on improving gas emissions in both provinces, including spending billions in carbon capture technology.

"Nobody in this country is spending more than the provinces of Alberta and Saskatchewan, period," said Wall.

If a new federal government halts oilsands development, Stelmach warned that it will end foreign investment into Canada, along with driving the country further into debt.

Gang problems in Saskatchewan and Alberta to be tackled together

jeff.cummings@metronews.ca

INFORMATION Law enforcement agencies across Alberta and Saskatchewan will soon be able to share information with each other in order to curb escalating gang violence in both provinces, its two premiers announced yesterday.

"Sharing information between different police organizations, that's critical," said Premier Ed Stelmach during a joint cabinet meeting with Saskatchewan's government yesterday.

"Gangs don't really respect borders, whether they are provincial or municipal. And our experiences are similar, especially the issues that we have with Hobbema."

Justice ministers from both provinces are planning talks to giving police tools in dealing with the problem, along with making changes in the prison system where gangs are recruiting, said Saskatchewan Premier Brad Wall.

Environment 'bogus' issue: Prof

Says that as with health care, public not ready to pay price for solution

NEIL MACKINNON
Metro Canada

Environmental stewardship has become the new health care on this season's federal election catwalks.

University of Calgary political scientist Barry Cooper said the two have a lot in common, as their symbolic nature leave no realistic hope for solutions, tugging at the heartstrings of the populace while over-riding the perceived reality of the situation.

"The environment is about as bogus as health care," Cooper said, noting the power of a 20-year Liberal public relations campaign framing the Medicare issue as intrinsic to who we are has worn off, and the environment issue comes down to who can scream their green virtues louder.

"People get very excited but it's certainly not practical."

Cooper said society knows the solutions but just doesn't want to face them, citing deleterious economic effects from environmental action and privatizing health care, a possibility he says won't arise for two more elections.

Calgary and Area Physicians Association past-president Dr. Glenn Comm believes health care has fallen off the radar because previous governments lost their moral authority to talk about it through repetitive inaction.

"Everybody knows it's a problem and I guess it has just reached the point where it's no longer news," Comm said.

It's unfortunate the two issues are being viewed as mutually exclusive, said Health Sciences Association of Alberta president Elisabeth Ballermann, who views both as intimately intertwined.

"I'd hate to see a government who's a one-trick pony," she said.

Environment, economy linked

DEBATE Just days into the election campaign, the climate change debate is veering onto the wrong track with suggestions that taking care of the environment could hurt the economy, says David Suzuki. "Let's hope that the economy versus the environment (debate) will not continue, it's not either/or — without the environment there is no economy," Canada's most prominent environmentalist said. TORSTAR NEWS SERVICE

Workers claim they were duped

MEETING Desperate laid-off forestry workers said they were tricked into attending NDP Leader Jack Layton's town hall meeting yesterday in Thunder Bay, Ont.

At least five members of the Canadian Energy and Paper Workers union told reporters they were told it was going to be a meeting about benefits.

"I got an e-mail from the union thinking it was a union meeting on severance and EI (Employment Insurance) benefits. When I seen the bus out front I knew there was a politician," said a man who refused to give his name.

However, Allan Pert, a life-long resident of Thunder Bay and laid-off sawmill worker, confirmed he received the same e-mail, which actually came from the CEP action centre, not the local union.

Besides this, Layton was also called on what appeared to be planted questions from the crowd of more than 100 supporters.

Rooting out the important issues

Prime Minister Stephen Harper, often criticized for being wooden and humourless, sidestepped what could have been a prickly political question yesterday at an election whistle stop at a vegetable warehouse.

"If you were a vegetable, what type of vegetable would you be?" a local television reporter asked Harper amid hoots of laughter from other reporters and Conservative Party officials.

Harper appeared to gaze at the neatly piled cabbages, cauliflowers and potatoes behind him as he searched for a reply.

"You know, I really don't know how to answer that question. I've never been asked that question before, and I have a feeling that I can't win by answering it," he said.

"Let me say this. I would choose, if I had to, instead to be a fruit. Just what I am: Sweet and colourful."

Mayor blasts Harper, Dion

CITIES Prime Minister Stephen Harper and Liberal Leader Stéphane Dion rolled into Toronto yesterday looking to woo urban voters — and got a blast from Mississauga, Ont., Mayor Hazel McCallion demanding that Ottawa do more to help Canada's cities.

McCallion laid out a chilly welcome mat for the two leaders, telling a Mississauga Board of Trade luncheon that the cash being spent on the election triggered by the Conservatives — some $297 million — should have been pumped into municipal infrastructure.

Stressing she's non-partisan, McCallion lambasted successive federal governments — Liberal and Conservative — for the fact that Ontario "has been discriminated against for many years."

There must be change, said McCallion. "Are we going to stand up and make that happen?"

TORSTAR NEWS SERVICE

News in brief

CONCEPT The Liberals' Green Shift environmental plan has often been criticized as too complicated to sell to the public. So Stéphane Dion says he wants to simplify the concept, which is to raise taxes sharply on polluting activities and transfer the money back to Canadians in the form of lower personal and corporate income taxes. "It's very simple: I will give you the Liberal plan in six words," Dion now says. "Cut Income Taxes. Shift To Pollution."

WORDS The Gaelic translation of "Vote Green Party," according to Elizabeth May's brother, is "Vó-tadh Partaidh Uaine." May says "partaidh" is derived from the English word for party but spelled and pronounced differently.

IRAQ All but a handful of 29 U.S. allies in Iraq will pull out of the war over the next 90 days, officials said. About 8,000 U.S. troops will leave by February, with further pullouts up to the next U.S. president. REUTERS

Nations back Obama: Poll

ELECTION Barack Obama may be struggling to nudge ahead of John McCain in polls at home, but people around the world want him in the White House, a BBC poll says.

All 22 countries in the poll would prefer to see Obama elected president ahead of McCain. And in 17 of the 22 nations polled, people expect relations between the U.S. and the rest of the world to improve if Obama wins.

More than 22,000 people were questioned by pollster GlobeScan in countries across Africa, Europe and South America.

The margin in favour of Obama ranged from 9 per cent in India to 82 per cent in Kenya, while an average of 49 per cent preferred Obama compared with McCain's 12 per cent. REUTERS

Russia sending warship on Caribbean exercise

MOSCOW Russia said on Monday it would send an armed, nuclear-powered ship to the Caribbean for a joint naval exercise with Venezuela.

Russian officials denied the mission was linked to a standoff with U.S. ships in the Black Sea. Moscow has criticized the U.S. for sending vessels to Georgia to deliver aid after it was occupied by Russian troops.

A spokesman said the November mission would include the battle cruiser "Peter the Great", one of the world's largest warships. REUTERS

Samak ordered to quit for hosting cooking show

After seven months of turbulent rule, Thai Prime Minister Samak Sundaravej's passion for hot, spicy food has forced him out of power — only briefly.

The combative 73-year-old politician has survived months of street protests, graft probes, a hostile media, disobedient generals and sniping from the country's revered king.

But he ran foul of the constitution by hosting TV cooking show "Tasting, Grumbling" while in office, a top court ruled yesterday, ordering him to resign because he had worked for a private broadcaster. There was no immediate

Visionary prize-winners

RESEARCH PRIZE Two U.S. researchers whose work could boost efforts to eradicate blindness have won a 1 million euro prize, Portugal's Champalimaud Foundation said yesterday.

Dr. Jeremy Nathans and Dr. King-Wai Yau, both professors at Johns Hopkins University in Baltimore, share the award for their work on how light is converted into electric signals used by the brain to create visio.

The money will fund the scientists' "ongoing, cutting-edge vision research," the foundation said.

The research may contribute to treatment of potentially blinding diseases as age-related retinal molecular degeneration. REUTERS

Canada housing market rebounds

Canadian housing starts rebounded in August, beating expectations, but some economists cautioned against reading too much into the number since it followed a weak reading in July.

Housing starts rose 13 per cent in August to a seasonally adjusted annualized rate of 211,000 units from 186,500 units in July, the Canada Mortgage and Housing Corp. said.

The bulk of the overall gain, which topped the consensus analysts' expectation for 195,000 starts, was in Ontario, where housing starts shot up to 86,500, an 81 per cent jump.

The government-owned CMHC attributed the surge to multiple-unit starts, which shot up 25.2 per cent to 114,700 units following a 20.2 per cent slide in July.

Argos bring back 'The Don'

Matthews overcomes anxiety woes to make return as CFL head coach

Don Matthews knew it was pretty much over for him after his Montreal Alouettes nosed the Bombers 23-20 in Winnipeg.

The date was Sept. 29, 2006, and marked both his record 357th game as a head coach in the CFL and his record 231st win. They were also his last of each.

Friday night at the Rogers Centre, it'll be Matthews at the Toronto Argonaut tiller for a third time.

Now 69, but hearty and hale once again, Matthews was re-introduced yesterday as Argo head coach, stepping in for the beleaguered Rich Stubler, who was dismissed with a 4-6 record in his first season at the helm.

About the first thing Matthews did with his turn at yesterday's mike was to clarify why he abruptly resigned from the Alouettes, from his 30 years in the CFL, some five days after that Winnipeg win — but with four games left in the regular season.

The reason: crippling anxiety.

"It was debilitating," said Matthews. "I couldn't go out of the house. When I did, I wanted to hurry and get back in. When I talked to the team about it, I could hardly speak. And it wasn't just football, it was everything. I was such a mess."

The Als were off to a 7-0 start when Matthews first informed management of his progressively worsening condition.

"We went six more weeks and it got worse," said Matthews. "They called it a 'performance anxiety.' At the end, I could not put myself on the field."

The win in Winnipeg was the kicker.

"That's when I knew I was in trouble," Matthews recalled. "That was my worst anxiety. In that one, I'd faked a punt and got a first down. I faked a field goal and got a first down, then a touchdown."

"If you know how I lived on the football field — faking punts and blitzing and stuff like that — I mean, those are some anxious moments. So part of my style probably contributed to the anxiety."

Five days after that win, Matthews disappeared, as he'd always said he wanted to, "in a puff of smoke."

He retreated to Oregon, setting up shop with not-yet wife Stephanie, whom he'd met in Montreal, and her son Blaze, now 4.

He also ran into another doctor, new medication. In five weeks, he knew the anxiety attacks were gone. He reckons he's been in the clear for a year and a half.

"The thing is, I was happy with my career," he said. "I really felt I had done enough. I had no regrets. I really felt good about it."

Then the Argos called.

"I think I would have been hard-pressed to come back if it wasn't for this group of people (and here, he mentioned Argo GM and good friend Adam Rita, and team CEO Mike Clemons), I'm not sure if this would have happened."

Bombers deal for Moreno

CFL The Winnipeg Blue Bombers have acquired star linebacker Zeke Moreno from Hamilton.

The Bombers also got a conditional draft pick in the deal, while sending the Tiger-Cats a first-round pick in 2009 and the rights to lineman Corey Mace.

Blue Jays win 10th straight

MLB Marco Scutaro, Scott Rolen and Vernon Wells homered as the Toronto Blue Jays clobbered Chicago 8-2 last night sweeping a day/night doubleheader from the White Sox and winning their 10th game in a row.

After being shut down by A.J. Burnett in a 3-1 final in the day game, the White Sox faltered in the nightcap by giving up four runs in the fifth inning.

Jesse Litsch allowed six hits and two runs in seven innings to get the win in the second contest of the four-game series. He fanned six for the Blue Jays, who are on their longest winning streak since ripping off 11 straight victories from Aug. 27-Sept. 7, 1998.

The latest surge left the Jays seven games behind Boston for the AL wild-card lead. METRO NEWS SERVICES

Good Vibe-rations

Practicality takes centre stage for Pontiac compact

MICHAEL BANOVSKY
for Metro Canada

If the Pontiac Vibe was an appetizer, it would be the California Roll – delicious sushi on the inside and yet easy to handle and appealing on the outside.

The Vibe is a product of a General Motors and Toyota alliance. Its sister car is the Toyota Matrix. While underneath, the Vibe utilizes a Toyota platform and engines, the exterior is modern Americana.

There are small differences between the two content-wise — for instance a Monsoon stereo is only available on the Vibe (and a JBL stereo is exclusive to the Matrix) — but from the driver's seat you would be hard pressed to notice a different driving experience.

Probably the most popular variant will be the Vibe with all-wheel-drive, as its larger engine (2.4-litre 4-cylinder with 158 horsepower) and plastic-lined rear cargo area should make it the most practical for any environment.

From an enthusiast's standpoint, however, I wonder how long it'll take a Pontiac engineer to install a turbocharged Ecotec engine into the Vibe.

While underneath, the Vibe utilizes a Toyota platform and engines, the exterior is modern Americana.

Inside, again, practicality takes centre stage. A handy-dandy 115-volt (100W) dash-mounted plug means you'll no longer have to buy separate car chargers for your electronic gizmos. There are cubby holes everywhere, controls fall easily to hand, and the driving position seems to fit a wide range of body types.

Now, the biggest difference between the Vibe and Matrix is on price: the Vibe starts at $15,995; the Matrix at $15,705. Top range models are different altogether: the Vibe GT starts at $24,995, the Matrix XRS at $25,220. Transaction prices, though, favour the ever-eager-to-deal Pontiac salespeople — plus any deals the General has cooked up.

So the Vibe is basically a Toyota. I think for North America, re-skinning a winning design to attract univer-

Massive faith in South Korea

The Travel Junkie

Julia Dimon

thetraveljunkie.ca

According to the Guinness Book of World Records, the largest Christian congregation in the world is not located where you might expect it to be. Instead of calling the southern U.S. home, the Yoido Full Gospel Church — which boasts an astonishing 750,000-plus worshippers — can be found just outside Seoul, South Korea.

Though the country is predominantly Buddhist, there is indeed a powerful Christian contingent. Take one look at the exterior of the Yoido Full Gospel Church, and you'll have an idea of its scale.

In fact, it's hard to quell the thought that this red-brick dome topped with a giant cross looks like a stadium, and that I'm headed to a concert rather than a Wednesday morning religious service. Right on cue, a crowd of elderly women move past me in a mad dash to get a good seat.

It seems that despite the size of the venue, the pews fill up quickly, so it's best to come early.

Julia's tips

In the guts of the building, three floors of seats are placed in a semi-circle facing the stage. All eyes are on a joyous choir, singing and swaying to synthesized music. The church is devoid of stained-glass windows or religious iconography, but does have several large screens above the stage and camera men panning across the crowd.

The church has a BYOB policy — bring your own bible. But it does provide headphones, which I plug into a little black box offering English, Japanese, Chinese, Spanish, French, Russian, Indonesian and Arabic translations. With patience, I'm able to understand a bit of what retired Rev. David Yonggi Cho is saying.

"Our neighbours in North Korea are suffering. We must care about social problems. They are our brothers, sisters and neighbors. Love your neighbours and love the church with your soul, body and mind," he preaches. Though 72 years old, his voice echoes through the church. The crowd breathes a collective Amen.

A weekend in the Windy City

Chicago holds a reputation in North America for being a city of culture, with opulent art, innovative architecture and shopping venues that appeal to people from all walks of life. One of the best ways to enjoy Chicago is on foot, but the Windy City on Lake Michigan also offers transit by train, bus, cab and water taxi, which can help tourists cover a lot of terrain easily.

Friday

5 p.m. Sip a Mojito Chic cocktail made from 10-cane rum at the Lobby Bar & Lounge in the Marriott Hotel on the Magnificent Mile before setting out along the upscale shopping strip known for such iconic structures as the Wrigley Building and the Tribune Tower.

7 p.m. Enjoy spectacular views of the city and Lake Michigan while dining in the Signature Lounge on the 96th floor of the John Hancock Center on Michigan Avenue, a 100-storey building with a screened outdoor observatory. Sample cocktails or opt to eat a range of appetizers, including the baked Brie and the chipotle guacamole, instead of a full meal.

Saturday

9:30 a.m. Take the "Chicago Architecture Foundation Highlights by Bus" tour, which covers such notable areas as the Loop, Hyde Park, the Gold Coast, the lakefront and historic neighborhoods. The tour includes stops at works by such internationally renowned architects as

The Lurie Garden in Chicago's Millennium Park against part of the city's impressive skyline.

Frank Lloyd Wright, Ludwig Mies van der Rohe, Rem Koolhaas and others.

1:15 p.m. Lunch on a salad of tomato, mozzarella, basil and balsamic dressing in the Garden Restaurant courtyard at the Art Institute of Chicago.

2:30 p.m. Tour highlights of the art institute galleries before heading outside to wander through nearby Millennium Park and see Anish Kapoor's reflective "Cloud Gate" sculpture shaped like a bean, Jaume Plensa's "Crown Fountain" and architect Frank Gehry's Jay Pritzker Pavilion.

5:30 p.m. Hop on the Chicago Architecture Foundation River Cruise at the southeast corner of Michigan Avenue Bridge and Wacker Drive for the evening tour. Sit on the outer edge of the deck, sipping a glass of wine, and take in views of Chicago's skyscrapers while listening to the historical details about the structures.

7:30 p.m. Enjoy a draft beer at the historic Berghoff restaurant, one of the city's oldest, on Adams Street in the Loop.

8:30 p.m. Dine on distinctive Chicago-style stuffed or thin-crust pizza at Giordano's on Jackson Boulevard.

10:15 p.m. Watch a spectacular fireworks display from the patio of Riva restaurant on Navy Pier, a cultural center originally built as a municipal wharf and used for naval training in World War Two.

Sunday

9:30 a.m. Take the scenic elevated train ride west to Oak Park from the Loop on the Chicago Transit Authority's Green Line.

11 a.m. Tour architect Frank Lloyd Wright's home and studio. Wright lived and worked in the structure from 1889 to 1909, developing his signature American Prairie Style architecture and raising six children with his first wife.

12:30 p.m. Get a take away lunch at the Tasty Dog on Lake Street and eat in Scoville Park en route to Wright's Unity Temple. The temple was designed in 1905 as a place of worship for the Unitarian Universalist Congregation and has since been designated a U.S. National Historic Landmark.

2 p.m. Visit and tour the Victorian home where author Ernest Hemingway was born in 1899. The restored Queen Anne-style house was built in 1890 by Hemingway's maternal grandparents.

3:30 p.m. Stroll to the Ernest Hemingway Museum and enjoy temporary and permanent exhibitions comprised of memorabilia related to the author's life and career before heading back to the Loop. REUTERS

Post-Oscar flops

Some filmmakers fail to follow up on success

STEVE GOW
for Metro Canada

Some critics are downright disheartened by Burn After Reading — the Coen Brothers' highly-anticipated follow-up to No Country for Old Men.

Todd McCarthy of Variety even called it a "film that feels misjudged from the opening scene and thereafter." That's pretty surprising for the subsequent effort to last year's Academy Award-winning Best Film. Isn't it?

Well, not exactly. While no one is slotting Burn After Reading in the same category as say, Superbabies: Baby Geniuses 2, the quirky comedy could still prove that winning an Academy Award does not always guarantee a director will go on to make an immediate masterpiece.

Take John Madden for instance, who followed-up his award-winning romantic-drama Shakespeare in Love with the dreary Nicolas Cage adaptation of Captain Corelli's Mandolin. And don't forget filmmaker Rob Marshall who won the Oscar for Chicago only to let movie fans down with Memoirs of a Geisha two years later.

These are just two critically-praised filmmakers who failed to follow-up their statuettes with a masterpiece.

In 1985, filmmaker Sydney Pollack took Robert

Redford Out of Africa and transported him to stinky Havana. The huge 1990 epic was a bust both at the box office and with critics.

Peter Travers of Rolling Stone wrote, "You expect more of stars Robert Redford and Lena Olin, director Sydney Pollack and a $40 million budget than an uncredited and unpalatable rehash of Casablanca."

Yikes! That's a long road from standing behind the winner's podium at the Oscars show.

Perhaps the biggest post-Oscar flop has come courtesy of none other than Ron Howard. Skilled as he is behind the camera, after taking home the big prize for 2001's A Beautiful Mind, the actor-turned-auteur came up with The Missing. With a budget of $65 million, the Tommy Lee Jones/Cate Blanchett thriller was a huge post-Oscar disappointment, earning less than half its budget back. It seems the only thing really missing was a follow-up movie that an audience was hungry to see.

Ethan and Joel Coen review a take with actor George Clooney on the set of Burn After Reading, which opens on Friday.

Whether Burn After Reading will fall under the same curse that The Missing did is yet to be determined, but perhaps that doesn't even concern the Coens.

Instead, maybe the brothers share the theory of journalist Herbert B. Swope who once said, "I cannot give the formula for success, but I can give you the formula of failure — which is try to please everybody."

Oprah Winfrey

Oprah Winfrey to guest on 30 Rock

TV Oprah Winfrey will be starring in an upcoming episode of hit U.S. comedy 30 Rock, imdb.com reports.

The media titan was earlier this month rumoured to be making a guest appearance on the show.

Alec Baldwin, who stars in the comedy, confirms she will be on the series. "Yes, Jennifer Aniston and Oprah (will be on the show). What more do you want? We're only on episode four!" he said.

METRO NEWS SERVICES

Noth wants Sex filmed in London

MOVIES Sex And The City star Chris Noth wants the sequel to the hit movie to be filmed in London, imdb.com reports.

The film version of the popular TV show hit the big screen earlier this year and there are already rumours that movie bosses are planning a followup. Noth insists the New York-based show would translate well if it moved to London for a sequel.

Lopez set to join Project Runway

TV Jennifer Lopez will reportedly judge the final of hit U.S. TV show Project Runway, imdb.com reports.

The actress is lined up to be on the judging panel on the deciding show of the series on Friday, according to Us magazine.com. Judge Nina Garcia has hinted at the actress' participation. "The guest star is one of the most iconic women around." METRO NEWS SERVICES

Driver gives birth to boy

MOTHERHOOD Minnie Driver became a first-time mom to son Henry Story Driver, People.com reports her rep as saying.

The baby was born Friday in Los Angeles and weighed 9 lbs., 12 oz., rep Jessica Kolstad says.

Driver, 38, who has not revealed the identity of the father, has said that the dad will be involved in the baby's life.

"He's going to be a dad so, yeah, he's going to be there for the kid," she said. "I'm not getting married to this person and I don't know what's going to happen but everyone is cool about the situation."

As the new mom takes on her most important role yet, Driver says she is looking forward to simply observing and spending time with her child.

"Babies are endlessly fascinating to look at and I'm obsessed about their complete and utter lack of guile. I'm looking forward to seeing life through the eyes of my own kid."

She also says she plans on spending lots of time hanging out at the beach with her child.

"I love the ocean and this baby will probably be surfing and swimming before it can walk."

"This makes no sense at all..."

by Joe O'Neill

Jerry O'Connell says he made a big mistake on Conan O'Brien's show when he joked about the size of Rebecca Romijn, who is expecting the couple's twins.

This statement shows Jerry is a master of the understatement. Apparently, his Secret Identity is being a huge idiot. It's hard to believe anyone with such a poor grasp of the female psyche ever got close enough to one to get her pregnant.

Jerry needs to read the pregnancy book I wrote especially for celebrity fathers-to-be. It's called Celebspaw: Anticipating the Arrival Your Craven Publicist's Future Pawns. In it, Jerry will learn many women are apt to feel self-conscious about their size while pregnant, and may be sensitive to remarks you make about it on, say, national television. He will learn nicknames like Goodyear, Earthball and H.R. Puffinstuff are rarely appreciated. He'll learn the three stages of celebrity pregnancy are gestation, childbirth, and negotiation with People Magazine for the photo rights. And lastly, Jerry will learn that if he doesn't let her cool down, the flowers he brings home will also be his dinner. I believe it was Shakespeare who wrote, "Hell hath no fury like a pregnant woman mocked on Conan."
